

The Romance of a Christmas Card

Kate Douglas Wiggin

The story of the mission of two Christmas cards written by a minister's wife. These cards find their way to two straying sheep from the village fold, who hear through the message in the words, and the little scenes on the cards, the compelling voice of home. There was inspiration and good cheer in the cards, and from them came, in one case reformation, in the other romance.

Read by Allyson Hester. Total running time: 01:44:59

Cover picture from original books artwork. Cover design by Maria Therese. This design is in the public domain.

LibriVox